

Community Radio Day Agenda

Saturday, January 29th, 2011

1 to 6 p.m.

At the Access Humboldt community media center (CMC)
1915 J Street, Eureka, CA, 95501, on the campus of Eureka High School
(enter through the parking lot on L and Del Norte Streets)

1 to 2 p.m.—presentation by Gavin Dahl, Community Broadcast Coordinator at Common Frequency

Gavin will speak about the importance of community radio, drawing on his past as a radio organizer, activist, and DJ, and particularly address the current status of community radio efforts, in wake of the recent passage of the Local Community Radio Act. Presentation will take place in the Eureka High School lecture hall, next-door to the CMC. Please enter through the CMC; signs will direct you to the lecture hall.

For more on Gavin, see his blog: <http://radioactivegavin.wordpress.com>; for more information about Common Frequency, see <http://commonfrequency.org>.

2 to 3 p.m.—panel discussion with local stations

Round-table discussion will take place in the lecture hall, immediately following Gavin's presentation. Tables will be in place at the front of the hall for station representatives.

Discussion will begin with participants introducing themselves and the stations they represent, and briefly describing what they do at their stations. Questions may include the following (list is tentative) or others like them:

- Who produces most of the shows that air on your station?
- What kinds of community outreach projects (events, workshops, programs for the general public, etc.) do your stations do?
- What opportunities do your stations offer for volunteers and/or interns?
- What new projects or programs are your stations currently planning?
- How do your stations use the Internet and/or other new technologies to reach new audiences, interact with listeners in new ways, etc.?
- What kinds of training programs do you offer for people who want to get involved in radio or be DJs?

3 to 3:30 p.m. (may start later, depending on length of round-table)—short refreshments break

Coffee, tea, snacks, etc., will be available in the CMC.

3:30 to 6 p.m. (for the general public)—community journalism workshop with Terri Klemetson, News Coordinator at KMUD

Members of the general public will remain in the lecture hall for Terri Klemetson's community journalism workshop.

3:30 p.m. (for station staff)—planning session to discuss regional community radio collaboration and content sharing/distribution

Station representatives and staff will return to the CMC to discuss potential regional community radio content-sharing and distribution with Access Humboldt Executive Director Sean McLaughlin and Operations and Innovation Director Jessemyn Reid.
