

What do I want people to know about me that might not be obvious from just looking at me? Why?

What is important to me? Why?

What kinds of things would I like to see more of in the media or what kinds of stories would I put on the news?

Make up your own question that somehow relates to today's presentation and answer it.

